TRAINING COURSE AND MASTER CLASS: The Court of Justice in the Archives

6 - 7 June 2019
Villa Salviati
Via Bolognese 156, Florence

The archives of the Court of Justice were opened in the HAEU at the EUI in December 2015. This project builds on the recent interesting historical and sociological turns in EU law and Court of Justice-focused scholarship to propose steps to build broad foundations to bring these archives to life. Through analysis of a justified selection of cases it will demonstrate how and why the archives of the Court of Justice are worthy of the attention of a wide range of scholars from linked disciplines.

This Master Class (preceded by a Training Course in legal archival methods) will bring together some members of the Project Board and the team of Project researchers to discuss the different disciplinary approaches to historical research on the Court of Justice.
